This image shows a page of musical notation for a piano piece, consisting of six systems of staves. The notation is written in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The first system includes dynamics such as [fp] and [leggero], and features a trill in the right hand. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic development. The third system introduces a forte (ff) dynamic and a trill, followed by a piano (p) and leggero section. The fourth system features a trill and a dynamic change to p. The fifth system includes a forte (f) dynamic and a trill. The sixth system concludes with a forte (f) dynamic and a trill. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, slurs, and articulation marks. The page is numbered 18 in the top left corner.

1) In una precedente edizione al posto delle note fra [] si trova pausa di croma.

This page of musical notation consists of six systems of staves, each containing a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a single treble clef staff. The music is written in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The notation includes various musical elements such as dynamics, articulation, and fingerings.

The first system begins with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic marking. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic development. The third system features a cresc. (crescendo) marking and a f (forte) dynamic marking, with a fermata over a chord. The fourth system includes a [pesante] (heavy) marking and a ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking, with a fermata over a chord. The fifth system shows a tratt. (tratto) marking, indicating a change in tempo or style. The sixth system concludes the page with a final chord and a fermata.

The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, slurs, and dynamic markings. The page is numbered 19 in the top right corner.
